Dear Ms. Naomi Nakano-Matsumoto,

The Asian American Women's Alliance (AAWA) and our Board of Directors are pleased to honor and celebrate the achievements of Midori Kai as a model organization for Asian American Community, at the AAWA Scholarship & Recognition Awards Annual Banquet, Saturday April 21st, 2012, 6:30PM at The Santa Clara Convention Center, Mission City Ballroom, 5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara, CA 95054.

AAWA appreciates Ms. Michele Lew, CEO&President of AACI for nominating Midori Kai for this special Recognition Award. It would be an honor to have you representing Midori Kai at the AAWA Banquet. We are looking forward to your RSVP of the award acceptance and attendance by April 12th, 2012. As an award recipient, you will be provided a complimentary banquet ticket. Additional guests can purchase tickets at $50 each.

About Asian American Women's Alliance (AAWA):

AAWA was founded in 1996, is a volunteer based, Non-profit 501(c) 3 organization and our funding come from fund-raising activities. The mission of Asian American Women's Alliance (AAWA) is to Establish an alliance of members, dedicated to building support for the advancement of Asian American women from all walks of life through professional and personal growth.

AAWA provides a variety of channels to achieve the following:

- Personal and Group Support
 - Build support groups for professional / personal needs
 - Provide a forum for discussion / debate concerning issues relevant to Asian American women (health, finances, career, family, etc...)
 - Promote / Advocate cultural issues
 - Create networking opportunities for career advancement / transition
- Community Support
 - Volunteer community services such as meals for the homeless
 - Establish funds to support education & healthcare in our communities
 - Establish partnerships with organizations who share similar vision
 - Emergency assistance
- Building Leadership Skill
 - Cultivate mentor relationships
 - Establish funds / Scholarships for education & leadership development

Individual gifts and corporate matching are appreciated to help our Annual Fund Drive to support Student scholarships and service the above programs to strengthen the communities.

Contributions are tax deductible. AAWA tax ID number is 94-323212.
