

The Art of Gaman

Midori Kai, Inc. & Yu-Ai Kai invite you to a special evening with author Delphine Hirasuna Tuesday, February 27, 2007 from 7:00-9:00pm.

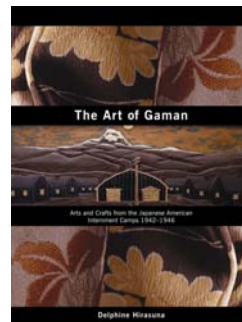

Yu-Ai Kai
588 N 4th Street
San Jose, CA 95112

RSVP before Feb. 20th attendance/pre-purchase book $25 (retail $35) 408-294-2505

Delphine Hirasuna will present her book, "The Art of Gaman, Arts and Crafts from the Japanese-American Internment Camps 1942-1946", followed by a question/answer period, artifact display and book signing.

This book shows beautiful handmade work by Japanese Americans while incarcerated in U.S. internment camps during World War II. Books will be available for sale and autographed by the author. The Japanese American museum of San Jose has graciously offered artifacts from their collection to be displayed. If you have any artifacts from camp that you would like to share with this group, please contact us to make arrangements to have them displayed.

Light refreshments will be served.

Please call Yu-Ai Kai for more information and call in advance to RSVP for this special event.
